

NEWCOMER

“ Rich voice, rich lyrics, weaving a tapestry of life and hope ”

Associated Press

From Elkhart, Indiana, Carrie Newcomer emerged in the 1990s as a Midwestern folk rocker of spiritual depth and unflinching honesty. An exceptional writer, she's also a natural performer, unpretentious and impressive, with a moving, throaty alto. No less than the Village Voice has praised her “warm spirit, heated intelligence and burning talent ... glinting with musical brightness and emotional layers.” Her new CD, to be released February 23, features guest vocals by Mary Chapin Carpenter.
