“ Music that reflects
the whole heritage of the instrument ”

All Music Guide

No overdubbing. And no fancy production. Just one extraordinary performer with a gift for communicating the tremendous variety and vitality of his instrument. National fingerpicking champion Chris Proctor frequently evokes words like “breathtaking,” “dazzling” and even “baroque.” A true pioneer of the steel-string guitar, he’s also an inventive composer who’s mastered a variety of blues, folk, jazz, classical and ethnic styles.
